Last summer, Almaz volunteered at the public library downtown. She liked working with the older people because she felt that she was doing something worthwhile. Today, she is meeting with Steve, the volunteer _____ at Quiet Palms, a nursing home. She wants to volunteer there to find out if she likes working in the health-care field. Steve tells her about some of her responsibilities at Quiet Palms. He says it's very important for volunteers to be _____ and _____ when they are working with the _____. He asks Almaz to make a _____ to volunteer at least three hours per week. Almaz agrees to attend an _____. She says she _____ to start volunteering.

CULTURE NOTE

A nursing home is a place where elderly people live when their families can't take care of them.
